

New calls are available at EuroAccess!

Following the agreement on the European Union's multi-annual budget for the period 2021-2027, the European institutions are now able to finalize the workprograms of the different funding instruments.

One of the first European programs currently publishing calls for project submissions is Erasmus+ 2021-2027.

Erasmus+ is the EU program for education, youth and sport, which promotes cross-border mobility for people of all ages, cooperation within the framework of European projects and support for political reforms.

Following calls, which could be interesting for you, are published:
